USPA NEWS - 'TDP and YCP engage in vote-buying tactics with money'

'Empowerment should be extended to the oppressed'

As the election campaign gains momentum, Venkatesh's impassioned appeal serves as a rallying cry for voters to prioritize long-term societal well-being over short-term gains. With the promise of a brighter future for generations to come, the BSP emerges as a beacon of hope for those yearning for genuine progress and equality.

Kandru Venkatesh, the BSP MLA candidate for Kothapeta constituency, appeals to voters to support BSP (Bahujan Samaj Party) for the sake of future generations. He highlights that major parties like TDP and YCP resort to buying votes with money, ultimately jeopardizing the prospects of future generations. Venkatesh emphasizes the importance of empowering oppressed communities to attain political power. He joined the election campaign organized by mandal president Nathi Nagaraju on Wednesday in Alamuru mandal of Dr. BR Ambedkar Konaseema district. They canvassed door-to-door, displaying the Bahujan Samaj Party election symbol, the "Elephant," and urged residents to cast their votes.

During the event, Venkatesh emphasized that the dominant castes are currently wielding power through the voting rights that Ambedkar fought for, while oppressing the Bahujana people. He questioned why we could not attain power through the same voting rights and urged for reflection. He challenged the existing paradigm with the phrase "votes are ours, seats are theirs," stating that this imbalance must end. He delivered a compelling message, asserting that the votes, seats, and power rightfully belong to the Bahujana people. He advocated for the establishment of a Bahujana Rajyam as the ultimate solution to address all societal challenges.

Constituency President Gurrapu Kothiiyya, District Treasurer Saka Raja Rao, Vice President Jai Bheem Sudarshan, Kandrekula Gangaraju, Kusume Suresh, Ganji Arun Kumar, Sunil, Chandu and others participated in this program. Based on the above, create a news story.
